

Spring Hill Historical Society
P.O. Box 23
Spring Hill, Kansas 66083-0023

Spring Hill Historical Society

2015-2016 Events Calendar*

7:00 p.m. unless otherwise noted

September 15, 2015 - (Board Meeting) - No formal program tonight, but please feel free to join in as we discuss how the historical society can better serve the growing needs of our community in the coming years. (Crown Realty office just north of Price Chopper)

October 6, 2015 - "Talking Tombstones: A Visit with Spirits from the Past" - Back by popular demand, Christine Hecke's middle school students will once again educate and entertain us with the fruits of their research. It'll be dark so remember to bring your flashlights!!! (We'll start at 7:00 p.m. on Main St. downtown)

November 7, 2015 - "Veteran's Day: A Community Celebration" - It's time once again for Spring Hill to salute the men and women who have dedicated their lives to preserving our freedom. Please join our school children, veterans, members of the community and special dignitaries for the tenth annual celebration starting at 11:00 a.m. Saturday followed by food and fellowship. (Civic Center Gym)

December 8, 2015 - (No Meeting this Month) - It's a busy holiday time for us all, so enjoy the season.

January 12, 2016 - (No Meeting this Month) - It's too cold to leave the house!!!

February 9, 2016 - (Board Meeting) - Once again, no formal program tonight, but fresh and exciting ideas are always welcome as we continue to dream about the future. (Crown Realty office just north of Price Chopper)

March 8, 2016 - "The Future Farmers of America: Past, Present and Future" - Our high school's FFA chapter is an amazing group of young men and women who represent the next generation of agricultural leaders. Please join us for a fascinating program about this organization and how passionate these students are to help feed a hungry world!!! (Spring Hill Middle School South - the old high school: Room #209)

April 12, 2016 - "John Brown, Bleeding Kansas and the Underground Railroad" - We are honored to welcome Grady Atwater, site administrator for the John Brown Museum in Osawatimie, for tales of intrigue about the life of famed abolitionist John Brown. It'll be an evening to remember so we sure do hope that you'll join us! (Civic Center Cafeteria)

May 30, 2016 - "Memorial Day" - The whole town is cordially invited to attend the American Legion's annual 10:00 a.m. Memorial Day ceremony at the Spring Hill Cemetery. It's always a moving tribute that has a way of bringing us together as a community. (Spring Hill Cemetery)

May 31, 2016 - (Board Meeting/Election of Officers) - It's a busy month for us all but come on by if you'd like to visit. New ideas are always welcome as we elect officers and continue to make plans for next year. (Crown Realty office just north of Price Chopper)

 All citizens young and old are always invited. HEY KIDS, NEED EXTRA CREDIT? CHECK WITH YOUR TEACHERS!!! For more information on these events, other historical society activities or to request guest speakers (including students!), call Jim Wilson (221-8547) or Christine Hecke (592-3419).

Spring Hill, Kansas
-a nice little town -

